Even Makes Tyrus Cobb Look Just Like a Truck Horse-Wow!

(BY W. J. MACBETH)

New York, N. Y., July 27 .- According to the generally accepted opinion baseball has always been, heretofore a law unto itself-a law full of unaccountable eccentricity and vagary that follows no set rule. Its creed was most tersely expressed in a modest proverb of Harry C. Pulliam, that still graces the wall of the National league headquarters, "Take nothing for granted in baseball."

The only exception to the capricious whims was Washington. This habituat tallender of the American league was a striking illustration of one instance that could always be taken for granted. The great loke of the national pastime was coined from its humility. Washington, first in war, first in peace and last in the American league race? Washington, hitherto the exception that proved the rule is now proving it.

Washington, hitherito the exception that proved the rule, is now proving it in fact. The Capital City has evacuated the cyclone pit for a prominent position in the forefront of battle, "All things come to him who waits". They certainly came Washington's way as a blessing in disguise, in no less a personage than Charke Griffith, generally regarded as a major league managerial failure. With the New lork Americans and with the Cincinnati Nationals the old Fox had disappointed. His connection with Washington appeared to the long suffering fans of the District of Columbia as the addition of insult to injury.

But in vindicating his managerial fame Griffith has fooled everybody, even the wiscacres of the Capital City and a couple of major league magnates in New lork and Cincinnati. For the first time in his career Griff has charge of a club free to direct its deathics. He was handcuffed in New York and feitered in Cincinnati by club owners who have always been too ready for outside advice, Griffith is the heaviest stockholder of the Senafors. He gambled his entire fortune on the purchase and everyone is glad

If for no ether reason than variety Washington's senautional spurt this year proves decidedly refreshing.
Still it embraces other interesting features. One of the most remarkable psychological studies of the age is this in the collection of oddities is that sterling centre fielder. Clyde Milan.

Gives Cobb a Shiser.

Milan has given Ty Cobb a black eve such as the Georgian peach has never before suffered in fast company. Griffith's center section of the outer defence this year makes Ty look like a truck horse on the bags in comparison. Never in his palmiest days did Cobb ever display the base running class that Milan has spilled and this in spite of the fact that Cobb is slugging at a far more steady clip than his little rival. It is true that Milan's batting, which exceeds the classic 300 notch, entitles him to a place in the firmamment of great outfielders, but it is his wonderful base running that commands chief respect. Between Clyde and "Shoeless Joe" lackson of the Naps, the modern Goliah has been shorn of his locks. Milan boasts the golden speed ringlets: Jackson the swatting curis.

For the past several seasons Milan boasts the golden speed ringlets: in compatison. For the past several seasons Milan has been good—far above the average value of outfielder. He did not shine as this year simply because he met.

The 2:09 pace, last on the program, furnished the best sport of the day. In the first heat George Penn led around to the distance stand, when Babe, coming with a rush, passed him in the lest few yards and won by a safe margin. Molly Darling, Walter J., and Forest Prince were nozes apart, a length back of the leaders. Babe led in the second heat until Molly Darling caught her a hundred yards from the end and beat her a half length at the wire. Kansas City, Mo., July 27.—Luck, one of the great qualities in winning a balloon race, cast its initial lot last night with the balloon Goodyear, of Akron, Ohio, when in the drawing for places of start in the national elimination race today, G. in the race, which will choose three American balloons for the international contests in Germany this fall, Bumbaugh will be the last pliot to leave the ground. FREDDIE WELSH IS

READY FOR A MATCH

San Francisco, Cal., July 27.—
Baron Long, Pacific coast representative of Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight, is in San Francisco, attempting to arrange a match between Welsh and Willie Ritchie, Frankle Burns, or any other lightweight worth considering. Welsh said in a letter to Long that the injury to his neck, which necessitated the cancelation of all his western engagements, had entirely healed and that he was anxious to get a match.

fans here fully believe the two men will make good, Eugene Moore, the star southpaw of the Galveston team, has also been sold to Cincinnati, of the National league. The purchase price was $4,000, which is believed to be the highest price ever paid in the Texas league, for pitcher or player. Moore will report at once. His record in this league has been a remarkable one. Picked up from a Texas amateur team by Dallas he was given a tryout, but was thrown in the discards. Determined to he a pitcher, he returned to his home and got a job in a brickyard wheeling bricks in a wheelbarrow for 12 hours a day. Two years of this gave him a muscle which would do credit to a blacksmith. Thus Texas amateur team by Dallas he was given a tryout, but was thrown in the discards. The predicted shakeup in the San Antonio team has come, George Leidy, while the Texas league has been developing some very fast pitchers, the number of sluggers is smaller than any previous season. The latest hatting averages show that few men are batting over the 200 mark. Those on the honor roll are: Metz. Thus coupped, he came to Galveston and has been the mainstay of that team during the entire season.

The predicted shakeup in the San Antonio team has come George Leidy, who has managed the team for six years, has been released and first baseman Meta, who directed the team on the road trip on which 12 straight games were won, has been made manager. Leidy is a discard from the National league. After he left fast company he became a manager in the South Atlantic league and developed such players as Ty Cobb, Leidy has accepted a place as umpire in the Texas league for the rest of the season. He expects to become a scout for the St. Louis Browns at the close of the Season. Mets has been handling the San Antonio team in great shape and is popular with fans and players. With him as a leader, San Antonio is confidently expecting to nose Houston at the presnt time. Mets is leading the Texas league in hitting and is playing fast ball at first.

San Antonio can easily out hat the Houston team and would be well ahead now if the team had the effective pitchess that Houston has. Miller, of Waco, Rogers, of San Antonio; Perrett, of Fort Worth; Edmundson, of Houston: Browning, of San Antonio, and Taff, of Waco, are among the other winning pitchers who are making a sufficiently good showing to merit attention. All of the honor roll are: Metz, San Antonio; Forsythe, Dallas; Holtz, Beaumont:

Hanager Netz Harvel.

If Metz, the new manager of the San Antonio team, does not get a chance next year in faster company it will be a disappointment to his admirers in the Texas league. He is leading the league in hitting with an average of the Texas league. He is leading the league in hitting with an average of .335 out of 97 sames played and is decidedly the best fielding first buseman in the league. Teams looking for a slugging infielder who is also fast at fielding will overlook the one best bet if they do not gobble up Mr. Metz. Martina. of Beaumont, enjoys the distinction of having pitched the only 12 inning, so hit game in the Texas league. This establishes a new record for the league and compares favorably has done. He has discarded his different form and taken himself off the payroll of the Fort Worth team. As one of the owners of the franchise he will will be from the bench. Morris is a little old and was losing his batting eye. He has had hard sledding this year, being one of the cellar champion aspirants. He is trying to build himself up a team of young men for next season and is giving the youngsters he has signed every opportunity to prove their worth.

In the pennant race Waco is the only dark horse. With San Antonio and Houston battling with each other for dear life this week in a series of six games, three at Houston and three at San Antonio, Waco is crawling up
